(a) Article 7 Culpability

1. Unless otherwise specified, infringements are punishable regardless of whether they have been committed deliberately or negligently.

(b) Article 8 Acts amounting to attempt

1. Acts amounting to attempt are also punishable.
2. In the case of acts amounting to attempt, the body may reduce the sanction envisaged for the actual infringement accordingly. It will determine the extent of the mitigation as it sees fit; it shall not go below the general lower limit of the fine (cf. art. 15 par. 2).

(c) Article 9 Involvement

1. Anyone who intentionally takes part in committing an infringement, either as instigator or accomplice, is also punishable.
2. The body will take account of the degree of guilt of the party involved and may reduce the sanction accordingly. It shall not go below the general lower limit of the fine (art. 15 Par.2].

SECTION 2 VARIOUS SANCTIONS

- 3. The body that imposes the fine decides the terms and time limits for payment.
- 4. Clubs are jointly liable for fines imposed on their players and officials. The fact that a natural person has left a club or Member does not cancel out joint liability.

(j) Article 16 Return of awards

The person required to return an award shall return the benefits received, in particular sums of money and symbolic objects (medal, trophy etc.).

(k) Article 17 Caution

1. A caution (yellow card) is a warning from the referee to a player during a match to sanction unsporting behaviour of a less serious nature (cf. Law 12 of the Laws of the Game).
2. Two cautions received during the same match incur an expulsion (indirect red card) and, consequently, automatic suspension from the next match. (cf. art. 18 par. 4). The two cautions that incurred the red card are rescinded.

3. If a player receives a caution in four separate matches he is automatically suspended for one match, another four cautions shall result in an automatic one game suspension and another four games in an automatic three game suspension. In every instance of a suspension there will be a R50 administration fee to the player. The fee applicable can be paid via EFT with proof of payment being shown for the release of the card. The Disciplinary Committee may exceptionally depart from or amend this rule before the start of any competition. Any such decision reached by the Disciplinary Committee is final.
4. If an abandoned match is to be replayed, any caution issued during that match shall be annulled. If the match is not to be replayed, the cautions received by the team responsible for causing the match to be abandoned are upheld; if both teams are responsible, all of the cautions are upheld.
5. If a player is guilty of serious unsporting behaviour as defined in Law 12 of the Laws of the Game and is sent off (direct red card), any other caution he has previously received in the same match is upheld.

(l) Article 18 Expulsion

1. An expulsion is the order given by the referee to someone to leave the field of play and its surroundings, including the substitutes' bench, during a match. The person who has been sent off may be allowed into the stands unless he is serving a stadium ban.
2. Expulsion takes the form of a red card for players. The red card is regarded as direct if it sanctions serious unsporting behaviour as defined by Law 12 of the Laws of the Game; it is regarded as indirect if it is the result of an accumulation of two yellow cards.
3. An official who has been sent off may give instructions to the person replacing him on the substitutes' bench. He shall, however, ensure that he does not disturb the spectators or disrupt the flow of play,
4. An expulsion automatically incurs suspension from the subsequent match, even if imposed in a match that is later abandoned and/or annulled. The Disciplinary Committee may extend the duration of the suspension.

(m) Article 19 Match suspension

1. A suspension from a match is a ban on taking part in a future match or competition and on attending it in the area immediately surrounding the field of play.
2. The suspension is imposed in terms of matches, days or months. Unless otherwise specified, it may not exceed twenty-four matches or twenty-four months.
3. If the suspension is to be served in terms of matches, only those CTTFA matches actually played by the team the player last represented count towards execution of the suspension. If a match is abandoned, cancelled or forfeited, suspension is only considered to have been served if the team to which the suspended player belongs is not responsible for the facts that led to the abandonment, cancellation or forfeit of the match.

4. If such a CTTFA team should be withdrawn prior to the completion of the suspension or no longer exist the following season in a season interrupted suspension, then the Disciplinary Committee has the power to determine what alternative matches count towards the execution of the suspension using Art.38 of SAFA DC Code as guidance and such decision is final.

5. If a suspension is combined with a fine, the suspension may be prolonged until the fine has been paid in full.

(n) Article 20 Ban from dressing rooms and/or substitutes' bench

A ban from dressing rooms and/or substitutes' benches deprives someone of the right to enter a team's dressing rooms and/or the area immediately surrounding the field of play, and in particular to sit on the substitutes' bench.

A stadium ban prohibits someone from entering the confines of one or several stadiums or grounds.

A person may be banned from taking part in any kind of football-related activity (administrative, sports or any other).

(q) Article 23 Transfer ban

The obligation to play a match behind closed doors requires an association or a club to have a certain match played without spectators.

(s) Article 25 Playing a match on neutral ground

The obligation to play a match on neutral ground requires a Member or a club to have a certain match played in another area.

(t) Article 26 Ban on playing in a particular stadium

The result of a match is annulled if the result reached on the field of play is disregarded.

(v) Article 28 Exclusion from a competition

(x) Article 30 Deduction of points

A club may have points deducted from those already attained in the current or a future championship.

(y) Article 31 Forfeit

1. Teams sanctioned with a forfeit are considered to have lost the match by 3-0.

2. If the goal difference at the end of the match in question is greater than 3-0, the result on the pitch is upheld.

SECTION 3 COMMON RULES

(z) Article 32 Combined sanctions

Unless otherwise specified, the sanctions provided for in Chapter I (General Part) and Chapter II (Special Part) of this code may be combined.

(aa) Article 33 Partial suspension of implementation of sanctions

1. The body that pronounces a match suspension (cf. art. 19), a ban on access to dressing rooms and/or the substitutes' bench (cf. art. 20), a ban on taking part in any football-related activity (cf. art. 22), the obligation to play a match without spectators (cf. art. 24), the obligation to play a match on neutral ground (cf. art. 25) or a ban on playing in a certain stadium or ground (cf. art. 26) may examine whether it is possible to suspend the implementation of the sanction partially.

2. Partial suspension is permissible only if the duration of the sanction does not exceed six matches or six months and if the relevant circumstances allow it, in particular the previous record of the person sanctioned.
3. The body decides which part of the sanction may be suspended. In any case, half of the sanction is definite.
4. By suspending implementation of the sanction, the body subjects the person sanctioned to a probationary period of anything from six months to two years.
5. If the person benefiting from a suspended sanction commits another infringement during the probationary period, the suspension is automatically revoked and the sanction applied; it is added to the sanction pronounced for the new infringement.
6. Special provisions may apply in certain circumstances. In the case of anti-doping rule violations, this article is not applicable.

(bb) Article 34 Time sanctions: calculation of time limit

The duration of a time sanction can be interrupted by rest periods during or between seasons.

(cc) Article 35 Centralization of sanctions

1. Records of cautions, expulsions and match suspensions are kept by CTTFA. The Disciplinary Committee via the Secretary shall undertake to inform the club concerned in writing or by e-mail, of any player who has accumulated a prohibited number of cautions and is thus suspended.
2. This communication serves only as confirmation: sanctions (cautions, expulsions, automatic match suspensions) have an immediate effect on subsequent matches even if the letter of confirmation reaches the club concerned later.
3. The registration card of any automatically suspended players or players expelled under Article 18 shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Association, within 72 working hours of been expelled, who shall safe keep and return the said card at the expiry of the suspension, subject to any prescribed fine imposed by the Disciplinary Committee having been paid in the case of expulsions, or the ZAR 50 administrative fee having being paid in the case of match suspensions resulting from accumulated cautions.

SECTION 4 DETERMINING THE SANCTION

(dd) Article 36 General rule [SAFA39]

1. The body pronouncing the sanction decides the scope and duration of it.
2. Sanctions may be limited to a geographical area or to one or more specific categories of match or competition.

3. Unless otherwise specified, the duration of a sanction is always defined. The body shall take account of all relevant factors in the case and the degree of the offender's guilt when imposing the sanction.

(ee) Article 37 Repeated infringements [SAFA40]

1. Unless otherwise specified, the body may increase the sanction to be pronounced as deemed appropriate if an infringement has been repeated.
2. These provisions are subject to the special rules governing repeated anti-doping rule violations.

(ff) Article 38 Concurrent infringements [SAFA41]

1. If several fines are pronounced against someone as a result of one or more infringements, the relevant body bases the fine on the most serious offence committed and, depending on the circumstances, may increase the sanction by up to fifty per cent of the maximum sanction specified for that offence.
2. The same applies if a person incurs several time sanctions of a similar type (two or more match suspensions, two or more stadium bans etc.) as the result of one or several infringements.
3. The body that determines the fine in accordance with par. 1 is not obliged to adhere to the general upper limit of the fine (cf. art. 15 par. 2).

(ii) Article 120 Request [SAFA137]

1. If the infringement is serious, in particular but not limited to doping (cf. art. 60), unlawfully influencing match results (cf. art. 66), misconduct against match officials (cf. art. 46), forgery and falsification (cf. art. 57) or violation of the rules governing age limits (cf. art. 65 a), CTTFA shall request SAFA to extend the sanctions they have imposed so as to have worldwide effect.

2. Any doping-related legally binding sanction imposed by another international sports association, national anti-doping organisation or any other state body that complies with fundamental legal principles shall automatically be adopted by FIFA, SAFA and CTTFA and, provided that the requirements described hereunder are met, may in principle be extended by SAFA to have worldwide effect.

3. The request shall be submitted in writing and enclose a certified copy matching the decision. It shall show the name and address of the person who has been sanctioned and that of the club and the association concerned.

4. If the judicial bodies of SAFA discover that Members and other sports organisations have not requested a decision to be extended to have a countrywide effect, these bodies may themselves pass a decision.

The request for sanctions to be extended will be approved if:

- a) the person sanctioned has been cited properly;
- b) he has had the opportunity to state his case;
- c) the decision has been communicated properly;
- d) the decision complies with the regulations of SAFA;
- e) extending the sanction does not conflict with public order and accepted standards of behaviour.

(kk) Article 122 Review [SAFA143]

1. A review may be requested after a legally binding decision has been passed if a party discovers facts or proof that would have resulted in a more favourable decision and that, even with due diligence, could not have been produced sooner.

2. A request for review shall be made within ten days of discovering the reasons for review.

3. The limitation period for submitting a request for review is six months after the enforcement of the decision.

(ll) Article 123 Scope of the code, omissions, custom, doctrine and jurisprudence [SAFA145]

1. This code governs every subject to which the text or the meaning of its provisions refers.
2. If there are any omissions in this code, the judicial bodies will decide in accordance with the association's custom or, in the absence of custom, in accordance with rules they would lay down if they were acting as legislators.
3. During all their operations, the judicial bodies of CTTFA draw on settlements already established by sports doctrine and jurisprudence.
